Areas which I have found useful

- Pack Behaviour & Activity Badges
- All
- All except the JIC 2007 session
- Especially the programme ideas
- All
- Behaviour Management
- 3 Year Programme + Website
- Programme Resources
- Ideas on Behaviour Management
- Behaviour Management
- Campsite Guidelines
- Risk Assessments
- Very good website with lots of time saving programmes
- Programme Ideas, Camp programmes, Pack Behaviour were the most useful, but all was excellent
- I'm in awe of the amount of effort you have put into developing the resources website
- Behaviour Techniques – very practical
- Improved understanding of planning + excellent website
- Programme Planning
- All useful
- All, particularly where to get more info on 3yr plan

Areas which I would like to have learnt more

- All
- I thought the day covered everything I expected
- None that I can think of at the moment
- Behaviour Management
- The badges
- Child Behaviour
- For leader skills, I think most was covered
- How to use and involve parents – perhaps info on ways to keeping in touch with them
- It's a shame that Scouting hasn't got it act together with resources for 2007

Any ideas for future Skills Day

- Knots
Response : We run knotting bases at approx 50% of our Skills Day – look out for info on the next Skills Day
- For me, this was exactly what I needed. Excellent
- Knotting – so I can remember
Response : See above
- Include some practical sessions just to break the day up a bit.
Response : This is something we trialed at a recent Skills Day, and worked well. We will be looking to include more practical sessions in future Skills Days.
- Perhaps a session on motivating parents to contribute, or strategies for expanding pack sizes, more leaders, extra evenings
- Recommendations for Admin (attendance, badges, parent rotas etc)
Response : There are some Pack administration resources available on our website. These are normally covered at 75% of our Skills Days.
- Games
Response : There is a games pack available on our website. It is covered at approx 25% of our Skills Days.
